In Re: Community Home Health, Inc., Debtors
Case No. 98-02141

OBJECTION to Application for Interim
Compensation to Attorneys

United States Bankruptcy Court:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the filing of this written objection to Application for Interim Compensation to attorneys for the Trustee in the amount of $25,469.33

Marcy Kunst, sole proprietor of Marcy Kunst Physical Therapy, filed Proof of Claim on July 24, 1998 of unpaid compensation owed to her for Independent Contractor Home Health Physical Therapy Services provided for Community Home Health during the month of June, 1998. Compensation due to her totals $5665.30. This work was performed prior to any work done by the attorneys for the Trustee, and warrants being paid before their claim.

These physical therapy services were provided by Ms. Kunst under contract with Community Home Health, Inc., in good faith that compensation would follow according to the terms laid out in the contract. The sudden and unpredicted non-payment resulted in severe hardship for Ms. Kunst. Some of the results included the closure of her physical therapy office, the necessity of borrowing funds from her father in order to meet her own debt obligations, and facilitated a change in career necessitating a return to college. Some of her college costs are being paid by money borrowed from the federal government through the student loan program.

Respectfully,

Marcy Kunst, PT
